

ACCEPTABLE USE OF INTERNET AND OTHER ELECTRONIC RESOURCES

The Centre Learning Community Charter School recognizes the value of computer and other electronic resources to improve student learning and enhance the administration and operation of its schools. To this end, the Centre Learning Community Charter School encourages the responsible use of computers; computer networks, including the Internet; and other electronic resources in support of the mission and goals of the Centre Learning Community Charter School.

Because the Internet is an unregulated, worldwide vehicle for communication, information available to staff and students is impossible to control. Therefore, the Centre Learning Community Charter School adopts this policy governing the voluntary use of electronic resources and the Internet in order to provide guidance to individuals and groups obtaining access to these resources on Centre Learning Community Charter School-owned equipment or through Centre Learning Community Charter School-affiliated organizations.
